

Karl Mohr	Artist	144	BPM	D major	Key
Iron Mountain	Title	3:00	Duration
© 2003 Karl Mohr (SOCAN)	© / Publishing Info	2006/10/10	Modified

1. I was sent a sheet of paper.
 Just a regular sheet of paper.
 They told me it was important data.
 And I should go to the iron mountain.

2. In the halls of the iron mountain.
 I heard the sounds of stacking and counting.
 All alone in the iron mountain.
 With my regular sheet of paper.

3. I found my way to the desk receiver.
 Spoke in languages foreign and clever.
 I explained the best that I could then,
 I didn't understand iron mountain.

4. I was sent to the Hall of Paper.
 Floor to ceiling, just regular paper.
 So many bodies, stacking and counting.
 Deep in the heart of iron mountain.

5. All the secrets of civilization,
 all of the everyday facts and figures,
 all of the regular sheets of paper,
 deep in the heart of iron mountain.

6. I came upon a janitor working
 Told me the way to happiness lasting Told me the future of those who linger is a lifelong cleaning up paper.

7. I escaped to the daylight sun,
 looked around at the land around.
 High to the clouds in every direction,
 thousands of rising iron mountains.

8. I was sent a sheet of paper.
 Now I'm lost in the iron mountain.
 thousands of rising iron mountains.
 thousands of rising iron mountains.

9. I was sent a sheet of paper.
 Just a regular sheet of paper.
 They told me it was important data.
 I should go to the iron mountain.

5/4 time, but more like weird compound.

Main descending notes:
 B G D
 B A F#

with motives and gestures building and developing throughout.